A Resource for Finding and Understanding Your Dominant and Auxiliary Functions

“If a plant is to unfold its specific nature to the full, it must first be able to grow in the soil in which it is planted.”
C.G. Jung

“Perception and Judgment are basic in the human condition. Our troubles come from faulty perceptions and poor judgments and our progress comes from clear perceptions and sound judgments.”

Gordon Lawrence

“Whatever the circumstances of your life, whatever your personal ties, work and responsibilities, the understanding of type can make your perceptions clearer, your judgments sounder and your life closer to your heart's desire.”

The Dominant and Auxiliary Functions of Each of the 16 MBTI® Types

Dominant Perceiving Types are those Types that enjoy using one of the four Perceiving Function-Attitudes more than any of the other Function-Attitudes. Eight of the sixteen Types have Dominant Perceiving Functions and each Dominant Perceiving Function is shared by two Types. Our Type comes with a natural way to balance our personality and keep us from becoming too one-sided.

A Dominant Perceiving Function is always balanced by an Auxiliary Judging Function; if the Dominant Function-Attitude is introverted, then the Auxiliary will be extraverted. In other words, we have a favorite way to take in information and a way to make decisions; and a way to operate in both our inside and outside worlds.

If Your MBTI® Type is:	Your Dominant Function is...	...a Perceiving Function that gathers data by asking:	Your Auxiliary Function is...	...a Judging Function that makes decisions by asking:
ISTJ	Introverted Sensing 	How are my stored experiences informing me of the present?	Extraverted Thinking 	What is the most clear-cut and efficient course of action?
ISFJ	Introverted Sensing 	How are my stored experiences informing me of the present?	Extraverted Feeling 	What is the most harmonious decision?
INTJ	Introverted Intuition 	How are my insights shifting my perspective?	Extraverted Thinking 	What is the most clear-cut and efficient course of action?

ESFP	Extraverted Sensing 	What is coming my way and what action will I take?	Introverted Feeling 	Will this decision sustain who I am?
